

"MICKEY" ASKS TULSA TO HELP HER

Mickey, a poor, lovable, harum-scarum little tomboy, has been living in a mountain mining town, slaving all day long. Mickey has never known any the joys of life, but now the news has come to Mickey that she is the heiress of a gold mine, and now she is coming to Tulsa. So in order that Mickey will see Tulsa for what it is (the best town of its size in the country) we want to let her know what to do while here, and remember, Mickey is going to buy a new outfit and will want to know where to find the leading merchants.

YOUNKMAN'S DRUG STORE

The Consumer Does Not Pay the Tax

Today a new scale of prices goes into effect at our fountain in order that the war tax may be paid without any added cost to our patrons. We assume the cost of our war tax and the consumer may continue to buy drinks and creams here without paying anything extra for tax.

THE TAX UPON TOILET PREPARATIONS, PATENT AND PROPRIETARY MEDICINES WILL NOT RAISE THE PRICE TO OUR PATRONS.

We assume the burden of this tax also and you may visit our store from today on with the surety that you will not have to purchase under a scale of new and higher prices.

Note these prices that will be in effect at our fountain from now on:

Watson and Avena Ice Cream, pint 25c; quart 45c; Coca Cola and such drinks 4c, with 1c war tax added, 5c; Sundaes and Ice Cream Sodas, fruited, 13c, with 2c war tax added, 15c; Egg Malted Milk 18c, with 2c war tax added, 20c; Malted Milk, plain, 9c, with war tax added, 10c.

ASK FOR A "MICKEY."

All drinks and dishes not listed will be lowered in price to meet war tax without adding anything to its cost to the consumer.
